

POST EVENT SUMMARY REPORT

Name of Event: KEEPERS OF DEMOCRACY - INTERNATIONAL DEMOCRACY DAY

Date of Event: 30th September 2021

Venue: Sokoto Hall, Treasure Suite Hotel Abuja, Nigeria.

Organization: Ready To Lead Africa

Host Name: Godbless Otubure (President)

Duration: 4hrs

POST-EVENT SUMMARY

On the 30th of September 2021, the president Godbless Otubure Ready to Lead Africa organization organized a hybrid conference tagged "The Keepers Of Democracy Day Initiative" a 76th UNGA session to mark International Democracy Day. At the start of the event, the National Anthem was sung by everyone in attendance, the introduction of guests was announced, welcome remark accompanied by an introductory video on keepers of democracy was taken by the President of Ready To Lead Africa Mr Godbless Otubure for about 30mins all together.

The conference had approximately 40 people in attendance inclusive high profile guests of reputable character and successful track records. It was a call on all executive bodies and political representatives on the aversion of coupe and to ensure sustainable democracy in Nigeria.

In attendance, were prominent representatives from the Nigerian diaspora, Commissioner Obi (Joe Biden/Harris African Diaspora Lead) and Dr Iyore who gave profound remarks on the topic of discussion through transmitted virtual mode which was for about 30 minutes. Two panel sessions were held and each had distinguished lead discussants from various reputable organizations, present was Mr. Hamzat Lawal CODE, senator Ajibola (NASS), Bulus Asten (NBA) Chairman, Oniofiok Kings (Ecowas Youth Ambassador), Efemena (YIAGA) and Dr. Benson Upah (Nigeria Labour Congress) representative. They were asked questions by the moderator of the panel, Mr. Godbless Otubure, about their motion on military administration or democracy rule to the development, security and unity of Nigeria and how their resolutions can stop the next coupe from happening in Nigeria and West Africa. Other notable representatives and attendees were also given opportunities to ask questions, air their opinions and suggestions that will proffer solutions to true sustainable democracy in Nigeria. This session lasted for 2 hours.

The conference was captured by various media press agencies and their representatives with the likes of Channels TV, TVC News, Sun News, Vanguard News and Arise News. Goodwill messages from partners of various organizations YIAGA Africa, AWL and NASS were duly rendered for about 40 minutes.

Afterwards, the president of RTLA Mr. Godbless Otubure gave a closing remark and expressed gratitude to everyone that honoured the event for 5 minutes.

During the event, representatives of RTLA were present Mr. Samuel John, Imem Emmanuel and Merenini Ernestine. Ernestine had the privilege to take in attendance and ensured everyone was comfortable, Emmanuel and Samuel were in control of the visual and audio systems.

In conclusion, this event was gracefully honoured and was a huge success.